ELMORE IN THE EGG TOSS

Ms. Amy Elmore heroically attempts to save the egg, as she & Mrs. Courtney Haser tried so graciously to win the Egg Toss, in the spirit of Pink Week!

HOWES & THE HOG!

Mrs. Maegan Howes kisses a pig at the homecoming pep rally. Students donated the most money for her to do so, in the spirit of Breast Cancer Awareness!

Passionately Pink Week was a huge success! AHS raised an excess of $800 for the Susan G Komen Foundation and Breast Cancer Research! There was a different game everyday at lunch, as well as tasty treats for sale.

-Monday was the Team Egg Toss

-Tuesday was the Three Legged Race

-Wednesday was also the Team Egg Toss

-Thursday was Face Painting

-Friday was Pink-Out Day, and an egg toss into the bucket strapped to a helmet on Bry-

Community News This past weekend Eagle Heights hosted it's annual event called the Fall Festival. This lets family and friends enjoy an evening to have fun with a wide variety of games such as, the rock wall, sack race, and everyone's favorite, football.

To My Mommy on your Birthday!

Thank you for all that you have done for me. Thank you for instilling values and morals in me that have shaped me to be the woman I am today. I have no idea where I would be in life if you were not always there for us. I love you more than the whole wide world.

Love always,

BeBe

Happy Birthday to the best Ninnie in the entire world! We love you more than Paw Paw loves his candy bowl...and that's a whole bunch!

Happy Birthday !!

Faculty Section: Ms. Sarah Boyett

Who's that teacher that has everybody turning the corner just to get a glimpse of her? If you don't know her, her name is Ms. Sarah Boyett. She is originally from Metairie, so yes she has that "Yat" accent. She is also currently dating a Hammond police officer named Smitty; therefore you do not want to make her mad or you might have him knocking at your door instead of that phone call to your parents from the school. Ms. Boyett is like your typical 23 year old who loves clothes, make-up, and hair, so if teaching English II doesn't work out for her in the long run at least we know she can make it the cosmetology world. However, I think she'll fit right in here at Albany High with us. Some of her hobbies include hanging out with her friends on the weekend, do it yourself projects, or just kicking back and watching one of her favorite shows Criminal Minds. Though background information can give you a precise image of Ms. Boyett, you must understand her personality in order to get the big picture.

Ms. Boyett is open minded and should I say a little open mouth. In better terms she's a little sarcastic, ok who am I kidding, she is very sarcastic. Putting two and two together, think before you speak when trying to hold a conversation with her. Be warned that if something senseless were to come flying out your mouth the first thing she's going to say is "what the devil?" Sarcasm is just her way of telling you she likes joking around with you. Ms. Boyett is an honest Abe, but her sarcasm helps bring out her honest opinion.

Congrats: correction from last edition

Dustin Spring: Alligator Hunter

Dustin Spring is a student at Albany High. This 5 foot 1 mustached senior may surprise most who don't know him. He's works the media at his church, plays football with friends, hunts, and goes fishing. Typical teen right? Oh yea... One more thing— he hunts alligators too. That's right: big, snapping, green gators. Sometimes, like his largest catch of a 7 footer, the catch is bigger than he is! He says he enjoys gator hunting because it "involves a bit of both hunting and fishing and it's not always a guarantee" that he'll catch anything. Gators are a dangerous animal to hunt, which makes Dustin to have to pay attention to every detail by double checking his equipment and making sure he does not lose his tags, risking being caught by a game warden. Knowing that "even a small [gator] can pull you in" only adds to the excitement of a long, hard, and fun day for Dustin. Who knew Albany High School had someone who actually does "Choot 'em?" WHO BROUGHT THE RAID?

On Friday, Oct. 24, Loranger Wolves came to town to play the Hornets. In the first quarter, Hornets moved the ball well until #11, Skyler Lehmann, threw an interception that was returned for a touchdown by Loranger. At the half Hornets were scoreless and the Wolves had scored 21 pts. However, the Hornets were able to end the game with a score of 34-8. Way to go Hornets! We are always proud of you!
